ELEVENTH OF JUNE RACES

OWNERS OF TEN HORSES HAVE MADE APPLICATION.

More Interest Taken in the Matter—June Races a Possibility—Encouragement Offered the Jockey Club.

The owners of ten horses have thus far made application of Secretary S. G. Wilder of the Jockey Club, to enter the various racing events on Kamehameha day and permission to train. The owners of other animals who intend to participate in the coming race meet, if there are any, should make haste to let the secretary know of the fact, in order that the Jockey Club may be able to arrive at some conclusion in regard to the meet.

Of the ten horses over half are runners. There are probably six or seven trotters that are sure to enter the meet. The track has not been put in to any condition suitable for trotting races but there is an abundance of time in which to make this improvement in case the meet is to be a go.

The running races are the most popular with the Honolulu public and there are some good horses that are just aching to display their running propensities.

At present there are no trotting horses in training at the stables in Kapiolani park. The report that there were several horses in training there started very likely from the fact that the residents in the park drive their animals about the track almost daily.

It is understood that the Jockey Club is lacking between $200 and $300 to insure the success of the meet this year. The proposition of calling on the merchants for this amount seems to meet with little favor. A dance at Independence park for the fund has been suggested. The club does not like the idea of depending on the gate receipts, for the members say that a good portion of the public do not go through the gates in the proper way.

BOUGHT A FINE RANCH.

Rudolph Spreckels is to be a vineyardist and orchardist. He is now the owner of the widely known Sobre Vista ranch in Sonoma county, near Sonoma City, says a late Examiner. The ranch is about 810 acres in area, has a fine house on it and all necessary buildings for wine-making and the handling of fruit. On the grounds, in addition to the vineyard and orchard, there is a fine young olive grove. The price of the property was, in round figures, $75,000. The seller is Colonel George F. Hooper.

MURDER WILL OUT.

After Evading the Officers a Thief Is Captured.

It was over three months ago that Abram Kaulukou, a son of the attorney by that name, awoke one morning to discover that some fellow had quietly donned a suit of clothes, pair of shoes and light overcoat belonging to him, sometime during the night Kaulukou at once notified the police of his loss. This morning Detective David Kaapa, while on his rounds of the slums, met a native man with part of Kaulukou's clothes on his back. He arrested the man and took him to jail on the charge of larceny. At the station the man gave the name of Charles Kahalehili.

BANQUET AT THE HOTEL

BIRTHDAY OF EMPEROR WILLIAM I WILL BE CELEBRATED.

One Hundredth Anniversary to Be Fittingly Observed—Consul J. F. Hackfeld Will Preside—Patriotic Concert.

This evening the Germans of the city will celebrate the century anniversary of the birth of Emperor William I. An elaborate banquet will be served at the Hawaiian hotel, at which about fifty people will be seated.

German Consul J. F. Hackfeld will preside over the ceremonies. He will respond to a toast on William I, the present ruling Emperor of the German Empire, whose health the entire assemblage will drink to. Other speeches will be made.

The dining hall of the hotel has been most artistically decorated for the occasion. Red and white flowers, ferns, palm leaves and coconut branches, have been used.

During the banquet, lasting from 8 until 10 or 11 o'clock, the Hawaiian band, stationed in the band stand, just off from the dining room on the Hotel street side of the hotel, will provide music.

The concert program, which has been carefully arranged by Professor Berger, consists of popular German airs. A march dedicated to Emperor William and prepared by Professor Berger is on the list. The full band will be under the leadership of David K. Naone, Professor Berger being a guest at the banquet.

ALLEGED JAPANESE MILITARY OFFICER NOW ON MAUI.

Residents Believe that Japan Intends to Take the Islands—A Jap Who Claims to Be a Minister.

Maui, March 20.
The inquest in the Japanese murder case has been postponed until next Monday, the Marshal and Interpreter Doyle not having arrived. They are expected by tomorrow, on special steamer. The Japs have been advised to abide by the decision of the court, and to be orderly and quiet. So the matter rests, pending the Marshals' arrival. It is said when the trial comes off the Japanese plan to attend in a body.

A well dressed Japanese, who claims to be a minister, has been seen about plantations quarters here lately. The report is though that he is not a minister, but was an officer in the late war between China and Japan, and is here for other kinds of "missionary" work. The report goes that he is making a map of the coast of Maui marking down reefs and harbors, and that he has been estimating the number of Japanese in the different plantation camps. He is at present stopping at Paia. There may no truth in the report, but it has gained much ground amongst the Portuguese, and some of the prominent ones here say that Japan intends soon to take the islands.

Last evening at the Makawao Foreign church occurred the March Literary of the Makawao society. The evening was clear and pleasant, and a large number of people gathered, not only from Makawao, but also from Spreckelsville, Kahului and Wailuku.

"The reading, 'The Brownies in March,' was illustrated by tableaux of the Brownies in the White House, and created much amusement and applause. 'Three Naughty Boys from School,' was sung in Kimonas, with Japanese fan accompaniment, and brought forth an encore. 'Little Green Apple,' another parody on the Mikado, was also encored. Mr. Shaw's poem, 'The Star of Hawaii,' rang with annexation sentiments. Other numbers on the program were also greatly applauded. Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake were served.

C. H. Dickey goes to Honolulu next Tuesday to attend a meeting of the assessors.

Hay Wodehouse is the guest of L. von Tempisky at Ehrehown, Waiakoa, Kula.

The three-masted schooner, Allan A. Schage master, arrived last Wednesday, twenty-three days from New Whatcom, Wash., with a load of lumber for Kahului, R. R. Co. She sails today to Mahukona with the balance of her lumber, and will there load sugar.

The three-masted schooner H. C. Wright, Olsen master, sails today for San Francisco with a full cargo of Paia and Haiku sugar.

WHALES IN THE HARBOR.

While out fishing yesterday afternoon off of his place, W. W. Dimond and a party of friends saw a school of whales spouting about. Mr. Dimond says that he has seen the whales for the last week playing and spouting in the harbor but did not know what they were until yesterday, when they ran almost smack up against him.

DEATH AT LAHAINA.

On Thursday last, an old Hawaiian, 75 years of age, named Maui, who lived at Honokawai was found dead in a yard near the school house with a loaded shot gun by his side. The poor old man was buried without any inquest being held. The authorities were not even informed of the circumstances.

SALE OF LOTS ON ESPLANADE.

Tomorrow, March 23rd, 1897, at 12 o'clock noon, at the front entrance of the Executive Building, will be sold at public auction the leases of Government lots 40, 41, 42, 43, situate on the Esplanade, Honolulu, Oahu.

SAKURA MARU JAPANESE

EXAMINATION OF THE MEN NOW BEING CONDUCTED.

Thirty-Five Men Inspected Yesterday—Most of Them Said to Be Disqualified—Steamer Discharges Freight.

The examination of the Japanese immigrants who arrived on the Sakura Maru last Friday is now well under way, and the indications are that the Government has on its hands just such another batch of ineligible as those dispatched Saturday on the Shinshu Maru. It seems that the Japanese have been given to understand that a landing can be made here if that much-talked-of $50 is shown, no other qualification being necessary. They are slow to understand the fallacy of the $50 argument, but the lesson must be learned.

The Sakura Maru went alongside the Pacific Mail dock at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, and after her passengers had been transferred to the quarantine station, commenced discharging at once. Executive Officer Reynolds, of the Board of Health, was present to superintend operations, and hung his little yellow flag from the main brace of the ship. By hard work the cargo of 8284 packages was taken out by sundown and stored away in the fumigating room to undergo the usual treatment. The fumigation of the ship's crew, stevedores and everybody about the vessel and dock was next in order, and it was 6 o'clock this morning before the Health Agent completed his work.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the Sakura Maru will be released from quarantine and hauled into the stream to make room for the Rio de Janeiro when she arrives in the morning. This morning the crew were busy shifting the coal to straighten up the ship. Capt. Brady is anxious to get away at an early date.

Port Surveyor Stratmeyer is conducting the investigation at the Quarantine station, and is being assisted by Interpreter Doyle, Alex. Mackintosh, of the Foreign Affairs office, and a stenographer. Between 6 a. m. and 7 p. m. yesterday but thirty-five immigrants had been examined. It is said that a large majority of them failed to show an right to land. The work was to have gone on this morning again at 9 o'clock, but the party did not leave the dock for the station until after 10 o'clock.

This looks like very slow work, and the agents of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha are already getting very impatient over the delay. They had advertised the Sakura Maru to sail on the 18th; the indications are that she will be here for a whole week. There are just 317 immigrants to examine. At the rate of fifty per day it would require that time, and after that comes the Collector General's re-examination, the courts, etc.

WILL LEAVE THE BENCH.

Judge De la Vergne Will Retire on May 1.

Police Judge George H. De la Vergne stated this morning that his resignation which he submitted to the Government in February last, is to take effect on May 1. He will devote his time and attention to the practice of law and will open up an office in Magoon & Edings' building on Merchant street. Mr. De la Vergne will not go in partnership with Lyle A. Dickey, as reported.

Just who Mr. De la Vergne's successor will be it is difficult to say. Alternate Magistrate Wilcox will be given the position if he wants it, but it is understood that he does not care for it. He was offered the judgeship on a previous occasion but declined.

THE MARSHAL CANNOT GO.

Marshal Brown will not go to Maui tomorrow to be present at the trial of the five Japanese charged with the murder of a Japanese interpreter on the Spreckelsville plantation, as his presence is needed in the trial of embezzlement against William J. Coelho, to be called before Judge Wilcox on Thursday. Either Deputy Attorney General Dole or Deputy Marshal Hitchcock will accompany Japanese Interpreter Doyle to that island on the Claudine tomorrow.

"NOW IS THE TIME."

HAWAIIAN HOTEL FOR SALE

THE GOVERNMENT WANTS FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Interview With Dr. McGrew, the Man Who Built the Place—It Cost $40,000 Without the Land.

The Hawaiian hotel property, building and grounds, is for sale. The latest San Francisco papers contain an advertisement calling for offers for the place, fixing the bottom figure at $50,000. No such advertisements have appeared in the local papers, and this action on the part of the Government is a surprise to Honolulu people.

The ground upon which the hotel building stands, with a small margin in the front and rear, is owned by the Government. The building was owned by Dr. John S. McGrew, who had a fifteen years' lease on the land, and put up the building at a cost of about $40,000. Under the terms of the lease, which expires this month, the building now reverts, with the land, to the Government. As the Government is not in the hotel business, the place would prove a white elephant on its hands, and sell it must, or lose money. But why the property should be advertised for sale in the San Francisco papers and nothing said about it here, does not appear.

Dr. McGrew said this afternoon that he had heard the place was offered for sale in San Francisco and that the bottom figure had been placed at $50,000. He thought that the property ought to bring a good price.

"I don't take any stock in these reports about a new hotel building," said Dr. McGrew. "They have been talking about it for years, and nothing has come of it. You see, the present property is not very desirable, for the reason that the Government owns only a little more land than the building actually covers. I own the four corners. No one has tried to buy those four corners yet. If they do want them they can have them by paying my price. If they don't want them, they can let them alone."

A local real estate dealer was surprised when told of the proposed sale. "If they want to sell the property," he said, "why do they not give us a chance to sell it for them. I think we might find buyers for the hotel right here in this city, if they are only given a chance to bid. I don't understand why they should go out of the country for a customer."

Even if the property is not sold at once it is not probable that the hotel will be closed up. The chances are it will remain under the management of Mr. Lucas, for the present at least. Mr. Lucas goes to San Francisco in the near future, but on private business of his own, and not in the interests of the hotel.
